FACT: OSHA recommends wearing masks and cloth face coverings at work to help reduce the spread of COVID-19. Learn more: osha.gov/coronavirus/fa...

KNOW THE FACTS

FACT

Wearing a mask at work poses less risk to your health than not wearing one.

Masks allow you to breathe and don't trap unsafe levels of carbon dioxide.

SAFETY Q&A

What are my rights to a safe workplace?

Under federal law, your employer must keep your workplace free of known health and safety hazards. You have the right to speak up about hazards or file an OSHA complaint without fear of retaliation. You also have the right to receive workplace safety and health training in a language you understand, receive required safety equipment, request an OSHA inspection and speak to the inspector, and report an injury or illness. OSHA's Worker Rights and Protections webpage has more information on your rights and how to exercise them.
